

TWO HUNDRED AND FORTY SEVEN MINERS DEAD IN STAG CANON MINE

Fourteen Dead and Twenty Three Rescued Make Up Total of Day's Recovery

MANY MINERS SUFFOCATE

Great Fans Which Keep Air Circulating Within Mine Was Disabled by Explosion

ROBERTS IN CHARGE OF RESCUE

DAWSON, N. M., Oct. 23.—Two hundred and forty-seven miners are believed to be dead tonight beneath tons of fallen earth, timber, coal and rocks in the cuts and rooms of Stag Canon Mine No. 2, of the Stag Canon Fuel company here.

Hundreds of miners, working in shifts of fifteen each, are slowly forcing their way through the rooms and entries, fighting against dangers of gas and a fire which today started in an adjoining mine and which tonight threatens to reach the space in which the entombed men were trapped.

Only twenty-three men have been taken from the mine alive. The first miner to be rescued alive within twelve hours was taken from the main entry tonight. The man was two miles within the mine.

Discover a Live Mule.

Fourteen dead and twenty-three rescued make up the total of the day's work of recovery. The finding of a live mule in the mine late today encouraged officials in charge of the rescue work to hope that some live miners perhaps are still entombed in a room located more than 4,000 feet into the mine. Henry P. McShane, son of Mrs. E. P. McShane of New York City, widow of a former heavy stockholder in the mine, is among the known dead. McShane, 19 years old, had come to the mine in which his father's estate still held an interest in order to learn mining from practical experience.

J. C. Roberts, chief of the United States mine rescue bureau in this district, arrived here today and immediately took charge of the rescue work.

Roberts stated tonight that it was impossible to tell what occasioned the explosion but that it was of such violence as to cause him to lose hope for the rescue alive of the victims.

In the mine at the time of the explosion were 284 miners and that the death list will reach so great a figure is attributed to the fact that the great fans which kept the air circulating within the mine were disabled by the force of the explosion. Not until four hours after the explosion were the fans repaired.

Many Were Suffocated.

Roberts stated tonight that many of the dead yet in the mine undoubtedly were suffocated. Some of the rescue parties tonight declared it their belief that a party of the entombed miners had reached a room and had sealed it in time to keep the gas from overcoming them.

The work of rescue will continue unabated until all of the bodies within the mine shall have been recovered.

Dr. S. P. Morris, representative of this district of the American Red Cross society, arrived here at noon and at once made preparations to relieve the families of the victims of the explosion.

The mine was supposed to have been one of the model mines in the United States and that such a disaster could befall the men within it had been considered impossible. Only two days before the explosion of Yap State mine, Inspector Biddow had examined the property and pronounced it in excellent condition.

Fire Follows Explosion.

Added to the horror of the situation is the slowly smoldering fire which started early this morning in the abandoned workings of Mine No. 3, and which, so far as the rescuers have been able to learn, has spread to the inaccessible parts of the Mine No. 2, the part in which it is feared the majority of entombed miners had been caught by the debris.

Tonight groped with the wives of the entombed miners stand the wives of numbers of the rescuers, fearful lest the recurrence of a slide of dirt and rock or the sudden bursting forth of flames will add new victims to the mine's already heavy toll.

Murit was indicted on this charge with Hans Schmidt, the German priest, who confessed slaying Anna Aumuller.

Schmidt is in the Tombs awaiting trial on the murder charge and probably will be a witness in the Murit trial. Schmidt is not likely to be tried under the federal indictment. The Murit jury was completed late today.

WHALES BRINGS WORD OF STEFANSSON'S EXPEDITION

Captain Backland Reports That Three of the Ships Have Steamed Northeastward From Point Barrow.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 23.—Captain John Backland, a whaler who left Point Barrow, Alaska, Sept. 1 and arrived here today, reported that in August three of Vilhjalmur Stefansson's exploring ships—the whalers Karluk and Belvedere and the steam schooner Mary Sachs—struck a lead in the ice east of Point Barrow and steamed away northeastward.

Stefansson's fourth vessel, the Alaska, found shelter in a lagoon east of Point Barrow but on September 1 it was frozen in the ice and had drifted five miles from the lagoon.

JUDGE ORDERS OPERATIONS PERFORMED IN AN EFFORT TO ELIMINATE CRIMINAL TENDENCIES

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Four patients were operated on today by Dr. E. H. Pratt of Evanston in an effort to eliminate criminal tendencies and moral deficiencies. The operations were performed at the instance of Judge George W. Bridgeman of the circuit court of St. Joseph, Mo., who has announced that hereafter he will not sentence any one convicted of moral crimes in his court to penitentiaries or insane asylums until the knife has had an opportunity to regenerate the mind affected.

For obvious reasons the names of the persons on whom the operations were performed will be withheld. Dr. Pratt in discussing the subject recently with Judge Boardman, said that the operations would not destroy any organ or function of the mind or body, but merely would remove abnormal conditions affecting nerve centers.

Two of those who went under Dr. Pratt's knife recently at the Evanston hospital, are brother and sister, each under 20 years of age. Dr. Pratt succeeds in overcoming their moral weakness the charges pending against them will be dismissed. Each is said to be recovering rapidly from the effects of the operations.

Today's patients were two men and two children, against whom charges are pending in the Michigan court.

McWeeny tonight confirmed the report that he had resigned, but declined to give a reason.

PRESIDENT REFUSES TO DISCUSS MEXICO

Conclusion Generally Drawn Is That Crisis In Revolution Torn Republic Is Slowly Approaching

WILL COMPLICATE AFFAIRS

Arrival of Diaz Appears to Complicate Internal Affairs In Mexico—Washington Officials Can't Depend on England's Help

U. S. MAY TAKE DRASTIC STEPS

BULLETIN

Vera Cruz, Oct. 23.—General Felix Diaz left his residence at ten o'clock tonight escorted by President Wilson's personal representative John Lind, American consul, W. W. Canada and his secretary, two American residents and a few friends.

It is believed that he is on his way to the American consulate to take refuge there.

General Diaz first went to the German Hotel, which is separated from the American consulate by a wall. The military authorities have been notified that a special train has been made ready for General Diaz and have issued orders to the federal soldiers to surround the block. Diaz is expected to be arrested if he leaves the consulate, the federal officers believing that he gone direct there.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—An atmosphere of gravity and sombre silence enveloped the Mexican situation here tonight, not only with regard to the dissatisfaction of the United States at Great Britain's attitude, but as to the critical state of affairs in Mexico City as the election of Oct. 26th draws near. There were no tangible developments, but an incident of the day which official Washington interpreted ominously was President Wilson's refusal to discuss Mexico or any phases of the problem, when he met the Washington correspondents in their usual semi-weekly conference. The president always had discussed informally and unofficially matters of international consequence giving the general status of affairs.

Today he asked to be excused. Secretary Bryan showed equal reticence.

Crisis Slowly Coming

The conclusion drawn generally was that the crisis was slowly approaching.

DETROITER IN SMALL BOAT FINALLY RESCUED AFTER FOUR HOURS IN NIAGARA WHIRLPOOL

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 23.—More than four hours in the grasp of the whirlpool in a small motor boat, Peter W. Langeard of Detroit was rescued tonight more dead than alive. He was taken to a hotel in the Canadian side where it was said he would be all right in 24 hours, although his nerves were badly shattered by his trying ordeal.

Langeard made the trip through the whirlpool rapids from the Maid of the Mist landing on the Canadian side to the whirlpool to furnish a subject for a moving picture film. The trip had been made several times before without mishap.

He navigated the rapids safely but when he swung into the whirlpool driftwood clogged the propeller of his boat and he was powerless to bring the craft out of the vortex.

Shortly before 8 o'clock Fred Preston of Niagara Falls, Ont., volunteered to swim out with a life line attached to his waist. Langeard by this time exhausted lay still in the bottom of the boat which bobbed around in the vortex like a cork.

The crowd, numbering nearly 1,000, cheered when Preston struck out for the rescue. Half way out his life line became entangled in drift wood and he was compelled to return to shore. On the second attempt he reached the side of the boat. He was afraid to climb in the craft half filled with water. Clinging to the side of the boat he called out to the rescuers on shore to pull.

The swinging of the boat around the whirlpool made the task of pulling pressure on the line at the right moment most difficult. Pull at the wrong time would have torn Preston away or overturned the boat. The length of the water soaked line also added to the difficulty of the rescue. Aided by instruction called out by Preston, however, the boat finally was maneuvered out of the danger zone and slowly drawn ashore. Preston was given a great ovation by the crowd.

YOUTH IS SHOT AND KILLED IN GARMENT WORKERS RIOT

Strikers Assault Operatives Who Decline to Join Their Ranks and Many Are Injured in Fight.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—In a fight between striking garment workers and operatives who declined to join their ranks in the center of the city tonight, Abe Kaplan, 19 years old, was shot and killed and several others were injured.

When the workers left their places of employment tonight they were attacked by a crowd of more than 100 strikers.

Many shots were fired, bricks hurled and women members of the mob used hat pins and pulled hair. A squad of police dispersed the mob and arrested two alleged strikers, one of whom is said to have fired the shot that killed Kaplan. The garment workers have been on strike for more than two months, demanding increased wages and recognition of their union. It is claimed that about 4,000 are out.

PROMINENT MISSOURIAN DIES.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 23.—L. C. Slavens, prominent in Missouri politics thirty years ago, died suddenly in a hotel here today. He was 77 years old and had practiced law here since 1865.

CLAIMS APPOINTMENTS ARE MADE ILLEGALLY

PERRY ADDRESSES COUNCIL COMMITTEE OF CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES

Southport, Connecticut, Man Asserts the National Council Violated Provisions of Its Constitution in Appointments Made for Moderator and Assistant Moderator.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 23.—

The national council of the Congregational churches violated the provisions of its constitution yesterday in naming Rev. Charles R. Brown, dean of Yale Divinity school as moderator and in naming H. M. Beardsley of Kansas City assistant moderator, according to John H. Perry of Southport, Conn., in an address before the committee of nineteen of the council at a public meeting today.

Mr. Perry was urging that the present constitution, providing that a moderator must be elected from the voting members present at the national council sessions, be eliminated.

Epaphroditus Peck of Bristol, Conn., told the committee there was no doubt it was acting illegally in assuming to make regulations for the various missionary societies of the church which are separately incorporated institutions. The commission assured Mr. Peck it had the consent of the bodies involved in making the regulations and this statement was borne out in the meeting of the home missionary society when the directors of that society, reported in favor of the merging of its society with other bodies of the church doing similar work.

The commission of nineteen which was appointed six years ago to draw a new constitution, containing progressive changes desired by the church, including a statement of doctrine, has recommended that the missionary bodies of the church be assembled under the guidance of the national council. While the amalgamation cannot be accomplished for several years, the national council has suggested the first step—looking to such a union be made at once by permitting the national council to name the majority members of the governing boards of each of the church societies, thus giving control of these societies into the hands of the national council.

Rev. Samuel H. Woodruff, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church, St. Louis, tonight addressed the delegates deploring the management of the rural church.

STEAMSHIP COMPANY FIXES TOTAL DEATH ROLL AT 134

Captain of Steamship Star Reports That He Passed the Volturno Last Thursday and That She Was Still Burning.

New York, Oct. 23.—The total death roll in the Volturno disaster was fixed tonight by the Uranium Steamship company at 134. Of these 102 were passengers.

Captain Groffiths of the steamship Star of Ireland, which arrived today from Cardiff, reported to the Uranium company that he had passed the Volturno last Thursday still burning, about 120 miles west-southwest of the place where she was abandoned.

The sinking of the boat around the whirlpool made the task of pulling pressure on the line at the right moment most difficult. Pull at the wrong time would have torn Preston away or overturned the boat. The length of the water soaked line also added to the difficulty of the rescue. Aided by instruction called out by Preston, however, the boat finally was maneuvered out of the danger zone and slowly drawn ashore. Preston was given a great ovation by the crowd.

SULZER SAYS PUBLIC OPINION IS REVERSING THE VERDICT OF THE COURT OF IMPEACHMENT

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Analyzing the events subsequent to his impeachment as governor, William Sulzer in an open air speech tonight to voters in the sixth assembly district where he is the Progressive candidate.

"The appeal to the high court of public opinion from the packed court of impeachment is resulting in an overwhelming reversal of the Murphy verdict," Sulzer said he had read that Charles F. Murphy "now bitterly regrets his failure to order the high court of impeachment to disable me from holding public office."

Sulzer attended a theatre tonight before his automobile speech-making and was recognized as he sat in a box beside Mrs. Sulzer. The audience cried for a speech.

At the end of the first act, after the curtain had descended it went up suddenly and the entire company faced the former governor and applauded him. Sulzer made a brief speech, attacking Charles F. Murphy. He received another demonstration in front of the theatre as he was leaving.

SUBSTITUTE BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE

La Follette Substitute for Seamen's Servitude Bill Amended So as Not to Affect Treaties

DEBATE AN UNUSUAL ONE

A Eulogy of President of Seamen's Union Comes at End of Debate Followed by an Attack on U.S. Commissioner Chamberlain

BILL ACCOMPLISHES THREE REFORMS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The La Follette substitute for seamen's servitude bill, amended so that it will not affect the treaty relations of the United States until the president has been given an opportunity to readjust them, passed the senate today at the end of a debate that was characterized by unusual proceedings. In the end the debate became an eulogy of Andrew Furuseth, president of the Seaman's Union, who was lauded as the man chiefly responsible for the passage of the bill. Mr. Furuseth who sat in a senate gallery throughout the debate was declared by Senator La Follette (Republican) and Senator Williams, (Democrat) to have worked in Washington for many years "at a seaman's pay to get legislation through congress improving the working conditions of his fellow sailors."

Senator Fletcher, chairman of the sub-committee that had charge of the preparation of the seamen's bill, declared the measure as passed by the senate today would accomplish three important shipping reforms:

"The giving of greater freedom to seamen, the promotion of greater safety at sea for passengers and crews and the equalizing of the wage costs in operating vessels in foreign and domestic trade."

Senator La Follette closed the debate on the measure with an attack on E. T. Chamberlain, United States commissioner of navigation, who, he said, ought to be removed. He declared Mr. Chamberlain had held office since President Cleveland's administration by "trimming and turning" but that all of his reports showed that his recommendation "fit into the interest of the ship owners."

Senator La Follette also charged that congress and the legislative department of the government had for years "shown a subservience to the shipping interests."

VERA CRUZ COURT ISSUES STOP ORDER FOR STEAMER

CAPTAIN OF WARD LINE STEAMER MORRO CASTLE CALLED TO TESTIFY

Testimony is Desired in Investigation of the Flight of Dr. Gomez on Board the Morro Castle Some Months Ago—Mexican Gunboat Lies Close to Steamer as if to Prevent Her From Leaving.

VERA CRUZ, Oct. 23.—A stop order from the court here for the captain of the Ward line steamer Morro Castle to present himself tomorrow to testify in a case of long standing, caused the steamer, which was ready to sail tonight for Havana and New York, to remain at her pier with all her passengers aboard.

The captain's testimony is desired in an investigation of the flight from the country of Dr. Francisco Vasquez Gomez on board the Morro Castle some months ago. The steamer has been here for a week but the order detaining her captain was not served until this afternoon and clearance of the vessel was then refused.

The captain at first considered putting to sea on the American consul's clearance but later he decided to wait until morning, especially as heavy northers was blowing.

As if to prevent the Morro Castle from leaving, a Mexican gunboat lay close to the steamer tonight. The incident has been reported to Washington. Mrs. John Lind, wife of President Wilson's representative here, has a reservation on board the steamer. She said tonight that she was convinced there was little prospect of an early departure from Mexico of Mr. Lind.

Supreme Court Denies Daniel H. Tolman's Appeal From October 9 Conviction.

New York, Oct. 23.—Daniel H. Tolman, known to the police of many cities as "King of the loan sharks," must serve six months in jail for usury. The supreme court so decided today in denying his appeal from conviction on October 9th, of having violated the law in charging a bonus of $5 for a $10 loan for three months. Although he may appeal to the court of appeals, the court decided that pending the outcome of such appeal he must be sent to jail.

COMMISSION GATHERING EVIDENCE OF GROSS ATROCITIES COMMITTED BY WARRING BALKANS

PARIS, Oct. 23.—Troops of all the warring Balkan states committed gross atrocities, according to the evidence gathered by the international Carnegie commission at its searching inquiry just ended.

The conclusions of the commission are to be published in book form, with illustrations and facsimiles of a number of the documents on which the report is based. In view of the commission's desire to present an impartial account of its investigations the text will not be divided into sections written individuals members, but issued as a whole, for which all members of the commission take responsibility.

One of the noteworthy tasks was the minute examination and verification by the commissioners of the famous packet of letters from Greek soldiers captured by the Bulgarians containing horrible descriptions of how Greek soldiers "avenged themselves" on Bulgarians who fell into their hands. The commission believes that it has established the authenticity of these letters. Other documents testify that the Greeks occasionally made use of the forbidden dum dum bullet and show also the misdeeds of Bulgarians and other belligerents. The inquiry did not extend to the Roumanians.

REKLY THE BETTER MAN.

STATE EPWORTH LEAGUE LIKELY TO HOLD INSTITUTE HERE

Officers Recently Inspected Nichols
Park and Believe It an Ideal Meeting
Place—Would Bring 250 Visitors
Here For a Week.

The members of the Illinois State Epworth League institute are casing about for a place to meet next year and while in the city yesterday the officers and others interested went out to Nichols park and were at once favorably impressed with the appearance of things there in general and thought it would be just the place for the meeting next year and possibly right along hereafter.

The organization would bring to the city two hundred or more people for a week some time probably in June or July and they would be most desirable visitors. Dr. Harker said last night it was wholly possible also that the southern league would be favorably impressed with Nichols park as a permanent place of meeting.

The president of the park board met Dr. Harker last evening and tendered the league institute a formal invitation to meet here and promised on behalf of the park board every possible courtesy should the meeting be at the park.

Dr. Harker regarded the matter very favorably and said he would take it up with the proper ones and would also like to have the chamber of commerce take some action friendly to the enterprise. No donations would be asked of any one in this city as the members of the institute pay their way. Dr. Harker said it was possible that some might like to camp on the park grounds and was told that would be all right, the tents to be pitched on the south side along the hedge which he said would be satisfactory. Arrangements might also be desired for serving meals to the delegates and that could probably be arranged with the concessionaires of the park refreshment privileges or arranged independently is so desired.

It certainly would be a good thing if the body or bodies could be induced to hold sessions in this city for it would attract here a very desirable class of people.

He showed how it could be cured by proper prophylactic treatment. The disease was more common in middle aged and older people. He was followed by Dr. White of St. Louis who gave a clinic showing the use of splints in after treatment of Pyorrhea. Both addresses were heard with interest and profit.

Dr. Applebee and Dr. Babcock were admitted into the society. The place of next year's meeting has not been decided.

MINISTERS AND LAYMEN HOME FROM PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD

Matters of Importance Discussed at Annual Meeting of Church Body—Dr. Penhallegon, New Secretary of Synod Home Mission Committee.

President C. H. Rammelkamp, Rev. Walter E. Spoonis, James H. Danskin, (Rev. Howard D. French and Rev. Mr. Akers, have been in attendance at the Illinois Presbyterian synod, which ended a three days session in Decatur last evening. Dr. Rammelkamp, presented the interests of Illinois college, along with the presidents of other Presbyterian institutions. The report of the committee on general church work was made by the chairman, Rev. H. D. French. In it he told of the handicaps under which the board worked because of the lack of funds. Less than 50 percent of the churches, it seems, have contributed for the work of church erection and the contributions received were inadequate. He recommended a campaign of education for every church to bring this matter to their attention.

During the report of the home missions committee it was announced that $32,000 would be at the disposal of the committee as a result of the bequest of Mrs. Phoebe Rose of Dunlap in the Presbytery. Mrs. Rose stated in her will that $100,000 should be divided equally among home missions, foreign missions, and the education of poor children. There has been considerable litigation over the will and the supreme court decided two weeks ago that the division should be made as specified in the will.

Dr. W. H. Penhallegon, former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Decatur was appointed as secretary of the home mission board. His appointment is not a salaried one and his duties are mainly during the annual synod session, although he will take care of the correspondence necessary in carrying out the orders and calls of meetings of the Home Mission committee.

The appointment of Dr. W. S. Marquis of Rock Island to the position of benevolent secretary revives the old contest precipitated last fall when the first attempt by committee was made to secure Dr. Marquis' release from the Broadway Presbyterian church of Rock Island, of which church he has been pastor for a long term of years. The Rock River Presbyterian refused to release him from that position and he then took up the work as superintendent of benevolences in addition to his work as pastor.

Coward on "Evangelism."
Rev. Olin Mason Coward of Chicago made an address on evangelism. He declared that the greatest problem confronting the Presbyterian minister of today is the complacency with which his congregation greets his efforts to preach the gospel to them. "Unless our evangelic complacency yields to the spirit of evangelism, it seems that the aggressiveness of evil will keep us just behind the great goal. He attacked the discussion of metaphysics from the pulpit and used as an illustration the base ball pitcher, who might never deliver the ball if he stopped at the height of his "windup" to deliver a lecture on the way the ball was about to cure.

Dr. Rammelkamp was appointed a member of the "Judicial Business Committee."

SYMPATHY EXTENDED.

The following, under the above caption, is taken from the Pensacola (Florida) News: "The sad news came over the wire to Dr. P. E. Hannah that Mrs. C. B. Lewis had passed away at her summer home in Jacksonville, Ill.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have made themselves very dear to many people in Pensacola and, although Mrs. Lewis had been an invalid for several years, the Lewis home on West Gregory street has always held a welcome for the friends of Pensacola and the tourists who so enjoy a welcome in a strange place.

Mrs. Lewis was a true gentlewoman of the old school, thoughtful, appreciative and sincere. She will be sadly missed. To Mr. Lewis the sincerest sympathy of the numerous friends here goes out."

QUICK RELIEF FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Keon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. DeChon's Relief for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by L. P. Allcott, druggist.—Adv.

MR. EMORY BAPTIST CHURCH ANNUAL OYSTER SUPPER.

A large number of members and friends of Mr. Emory Baptist church gathered in the basement of the building Thursday evening from 6:30 until 10 o'clock to enjoy Frank Mallory's third annual oyster supper, the proceeds of which go toward the remodeling of the church edifice. An excellent menu was served of oysters, chicken, with appropriate vegetable dishes, coffee, ice cream and cake. The celery and lettuce were donated by Henry Kirkin, gardener of Columbia, Mo., who accompanied the party of Jacksonville citizens, last summer, who attended the Colored Men's Business league at Philadelphia. Music was furnished by the Mallory orchestra and the affair both socially and financially was successful.

FAT PORKER PAYS VISIT TO CITY'S BUSINESS DISTRICT

Hog Lost in Confines of Central Park Finds Way Out via West State Street and Then Ambles Northward.

About 11:15 last night a 400-pound porker put in his appearance at the northwest corner of the square and after taking a view of the bright lights on that corner proceeded east, being very careful to steer close to the curbing of Central park.

A few citizens watched the hog as he gracefully rounded the square and turned down West State street. It was evident that the pig was looking for light and had been fifteen minutes later he would have been greatly disappointed as the boulevard lights on West State street went out about 11:30.

Late reports state that the porker was headed down North West street probably looking for the city light plant.

One of the city officials was notified of the incident, but was unable to see the porker rounding the curve at the southeast corner of the square on account of the lack of lights. If the hog wishes to look over the business district he should come around in daylight.

GRAND RAPIDS JEWELRY STORE ROBBERS ARRESTED IN CHICAGO

Five Persons Said to be Implicated in Murders Incident to Robbery Are Held by Police.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Five persons said by the police to have been implicated in the triple murder incident to the robbery of the jewelry store of J. J. Thompson at Grand Rapids, Mich., on September 18, were arrested here today.

The prisoners are Roy Blackburn and his wife Rose, Dennis Kleeman and two others whose names, for the time being, were suppressed. Blackburn is said to have been identified by an employee of Thompson. The arrests were made in a west side rooming house.

The robbery took place in the afternoon and netted the perpetrators jewelry valued at $5,000.

Many persons were passing the store at the time. John A. Thompson and Edward Smith, clerks in the store, were shot dead when they rushed to the assistance of Paul Townsend, a watch repairer, who had refused to open the safe at command of the robbers.

Will Terminate Labor Agreements Nov. 10—Railroads Will Welcome Readjustment of Wage Schedules.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—Forty thousand locomotive engineers and firemen employed by ninety railroads running west of Chicago have notified officials of the lines that they will terminate their present labor agreements on November 10 and demand a wage increase aggregating $50,000,000 a year, according to statements in railroad offices here today.

The railroads in turn notified Warren S. Stone, chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and W. S. Carter, chief of the firemen, that they will welcome a readjustment of wage schedules.

In addition to a wage increase the firemen and engineers are asking for a joint contract with the roads. The advance sought ranges between 25 cents and $1 a hundred miles, according to the nature of the service.

Procrastination

Nowhere is the consequence of procrastination more disastrous than in the making of wills. Most of us conduct our financial affairs as if we were to control them indefinitely.

Then suddenly we are taken and some one is placed in charge of our estate whose particular business is to "close up" our estate quickly as required by law, whereas men frequently leave property which requires time and attention to preserve its value. Again perhaps some member of the family needs special provision.

The law which takes charge of an estate where the decedent left no will is a cast-iron affair built to meet general conditions and was never designed to meet particular cases. It could not be.

The law permits one by a will the widest liberty in directing the handling and distribution of his estate. One should write his plans and wishes into a will, choose an executor of approved capacity and responsibility and tell that executor the things he wants accomplished with his estate. L.D.

Your judgment tells you this should be done.

No doubt you have resolved to do it—sometime.

Delay in making a will has all too often left a family without proper protection and frequently has resulted in serious financial loss, needless litigation or great annoyance. You know this.

We will draw your will for you. Consult us in absolute confidence and without cost. Tell us what you want your estate to do and we will help you write your wishes into a will. Do it now.

THE JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL Established 1843 Published by JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL CO.

The Journal has subscribers who have taken the paper, Daily or Weekly, for a great many years, and the question has been asked as to the name of the person who has taken the paper continuously for the greatest number of years. We have several who have taken the Weekly Journal for fifty or more years. Many have taken the Daily from its first date in 1866 to the present time. One man who purchased a copy of the first issue yet reads the Daily regularly, although now a resident of another state. The Weekly Journal has been published under its present name since about 1845 and is yet taken and read by the immediate descendants of "original" subscribers.

Under the heading, "Benevolent Societies" in that first issue of the Daily Journal, April 14, 1866, appears the name of "Jacksonville Division 618, Sons of Temperance"—and the Journal, even at that date, was against the licensed sale of intoxicants, pleading for a cleaner, better city.

The fight against the saloon and its attendant evils is not a new one—it is difficult to find one new argument, all have been threshed over so many times. But to one who has known Jacksonville closely since that date, the changes in the lives and habits of our people have been so great as to appear even marvelous. In those "good old days" a Saturday row—a free for all fight among a lot of drunken people excited little comment—it was to be expected.

The change of sentiment through the passing years has been great. The city is better morally and in every sense than under the old days of licensed saloons, and the lawless manner in which they were conducted. Many likable men have engaged in the business at one time or another, men who might have been successful in other more honorable lines. But can any of our "old timers" recall any whose lives have not ended in financial or physical wreck? Of course you think you can. Possibly you can, but they are few.

Have we among us one who is willing to boast that his present day competence is a result of the whisky traffic?

Have we one among us whose children are proud to so that "dad's" money was made through selling whisky—whether in a licensed saloon or otherwise?

There are few who have ever engaged in the business but are ashamed of it in their sane moments.

Why? Because no man knows better than the saloonkeepers themselves the trouble and misery and crime that follows in the wake of "successful" saloon business. Their consciences may soon become seared through too great indulgence in the stuff they sell or by the love of the cash realized.

Of late years there has grown up in the business an anomaly—bar tenders who do not drink and saloon proprietors who are total abstainers, men who go into the business purely for the money they may gain by the dissemination of booze-poison, men who in a cold-blooded way want the dollar or the dime of the drunken customer even if they destroy the happiness of a home. They would take the last nickel of a booze crazed customer if they could.

The old time saloonkeeper that took even chances with his customer was more to be respected.

It was the lawless way such creatures ran their business only a few years ago that led to the verdict of the people—and there is little reason to place faith in the cry for "regulated" saloons to-day. They may observe a stringent law for a short time, but it is exceedingly difficult for the man who is anxious to engage in a business of that character to "change his spots." The tiger is there, even though the claws may be concealed in velvet pads.

At the last meeting of the city council a light bond ordinance providing for a $50,000 bond issue to enlarge the municipal light plant was given a first reading. It will probably be given a second reading at an early session and adopted. Commissioner Brennan believes $50,000 will put the plant into condition to furnish light for the city and to take on some commercial business. His idea is that the machinery would be installed on the unit principle and that if the commercial business grew rapidly that other machinery could be added and paid for from the profits. No doubt before the question gets to a vote of the people all the facts obtainable about the success of municipal plants doing commercial lighting in other cities will be furnished. The Chamber of Commerce is also still planning for the services of an expert to size up the local situation.

Over at Hannibal the municipal light plant is managed solely by a commission of public works, composed of prominent citizens two of whom are millionaires and all serve without remuneration. The management of the light business has been so successful that the commission is just now taking over the water works. In talking about the commission yesterday Mr. Brennan said "I have been at the Hannibal plant twice and have looked it over thoroughly and have considered the methods of operation carefully. So far as Jacksonville is concerned I think that we can operate a plant here along the same line. What I want to accomplish in Jacksonville is to get plenty of light and I am not particular how the plant is managed. I have no objections to management by a commission, committee or any other body here. If we can get a good light plant for the city and well lighted streets. In other words I mean that I have no set plan, expert that is brought here and am ready to adopt any ideas that can be proven to me as better than the ones I hold.

It begins to look like something may be evolved out of present plans which will meet with general and popular approval.

The president of the East St. Louis commercial club will ask the public library board in that city to establish a system at the library whereby residents of Madison county on rural routes may obtain books through the library by parcels post. The idea is an excellent one for while the people of the county surrounding East St. Louis do not pay any part of the taxes which support the library yet the people of the city and those living in the country nearby have mutual interests. Anything which tends to give the country residents a greater interest in the city will naturally bring benefits to the city.

proaching; that the arrival of general Felix Diaz appeared to complicate internal affairs in Mexico and that stern measures by the Washington government would not be surprising.

For the first time during the talk of recess and adjournment of congress, the Mexican situation was injected as a reason for keeping the national legislature in session and in administration circles it was admitted that it was not the currency problem alone which made it advisable for members to stay in Washington.

It became apparent in well informed quarters that Great Britain's failure to repudiate the action of Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico who presented his credentials immediately after Huerta proclaimed his dictatorship, had caused Washington officials to feel that they no longer could depend upon the help of England in solving the Mexican problem and that hence forth the United States would go forward single handed if necessary in a firm and aggressive policy. Whether this will be revealed in a declaration by the United States of her intention as "the nearest neighbor" of Mexico to take such steps as will compose the situation has not yet materialized but many of these believe the Washington government will soon assert itself in a manner that will be tantamount to a notice to Europe generally that interference in Mexico by the foreign powers is not desired by this country. The attitude of some of the administration officials heretofore strong advocates of a policy of moral suasion, was decidedly pessimistic today and they reluctantly admitted that the United States government might take drastic steps.

Creates Embarrassing Situation. Though officials do not discuss the British attitude in any way, persons close to the administration say the policy of Great Britain has created an embarrassing situation here, with an ever increasing tension. It is not likely that Ambassador Page and the British foreign office will discuss Mexico until after the elections of October 26th, as Sir Edward Grey was reported as intimating that he would not bind the British government to any policy until after the elections. There is a confident feeling in official circles that whatever pronouncement President Wilson may make after the elections will be an emphatic reiteration that the United States will stand by its policy of dealing only with governments founded on law and order and there is likelihood he will go a step further and assert an intention of seeing that the constitutional government is maintained on this hemisphere, despite any foreign influence.

The Washington administration considers that the Huerta government was toppling; that a natural resentment was being manifested throughout Mexico after the arrest congress; when at the critical moment the presentation by Sir Lionel Carden of his credentials unrepudiated by Great Britain had the effect of morally supporting Huerta regime. Secretary Bryan's only comment on the Mexican situation was to the effect that representations had been made to persuade the federal authorities in Mexico to give the captured Maderistas a fair trial. While General Felix Diaz is by no means regarded with favor by the administration here it was apparent at the state department that American officials would look with displeasure on any harm befalling him or any other candidate in the coming elections.

Diaz Escapes Arrest. Vera Cruz, Oct. 23.—General Felix Diaz, who arrived here yesterday on the Steamer Corcovado and who went soon after landing, to the home of his mother-in-law, has remained there since. He has so far escaped arrest but his friends believe that if he appears in the streets he will be taken into custody by President Huerta's forces. Detectives and police are watching the house and all plans formulated by General Diaz regarding a visit to the capital appear to have been abandoned.

It is considered possible that General Diaz will take refuge tonight in one of the consulates. He conferred for several hours today with several of his intimate friends, while others remained outside the house, eyeing the Huerta guards and talking reluctantly if the police or military attempted to serve an order of arrest. Diaz insists that he will not leave the country and is still reluctant to believe that the Huerta-Blanco pact official sanction, although he admits that the wide distribution of the announcement makes other tickets impossible.

This was the anniversary of the recapture of Vera Cruz by the federalists after the Diaz revolt when General Diaz and his entire staff were made prisoners.

PROMINENT FINANCIER WILL APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE

Sergeant-at-Arms Receives Assurance That Charles G. Pratt Will Testify.

Washington, Oct. 23.—Assurances that Charles G. Pratt, director of the Standard Oil company and prominent financier, will appear before the senate committee investigating the West Virginia coal strike, were received by the sergeant-at-arms of the senate today.

Since early in September Sergeant-at-Arms Higgins has been endeavoring to find Mr. Pratt to serve him with a subpoena issued at the instance of Senator Kenyon, who is in charge of that portion of the investigation relating to the ownership and operation of the mines in the Paint Creek and Cabin Creek sections, where the strike maintained a reign of terror for two years. The United States marshal in New York was unable to locate Pratt who was reported to be automobiling through New England.

Mr. Pratt, according to testimony before the committee, represent an organization which collects a royalty on the coal mined in the strike district. To meet this royalty the officials of the operating concerns say they are forced to work the mines at a practical loss and therefore cannot grant wage increases demanded by miners.

ADVOCATES FEDERAL AID FOR STATE MINING SCHOOLS

Representative Martin D. Foster Addresses Session of Mining Congress at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—Federal aid for mining schools that are under state control was advocated at this afternoon's session of the mining congress by Representative Martin D. Foster of Illinois, chairman of the committee on mines and mining of the national house of representatives. Mr. Foster urged that more safeguards be thrown around those actually engaged in mining and said that education as to the dangers of the work and how to avoid accidents is imperative.

He expressed his sorrow over the mine disaster at Dawson, N. M., and added that such catastrophes have awakened congress and that it will refuse no reasonable request to aid the mine industry.

One of the interesting addresses of the day was delivered by Edward W. Parker, statistician of the United States geological survey, who said the net profits in the coal mining business are not as large as generally believed.

THINKS FILIPINO NOT READY FOR INDEPENDENCE

Methodist Bishop Expresses This View at Lake Mohonk Conference—Natives are Making Good.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., Oct. 23.—The Rt. Rev. W. F. Oldham, who from 1904 to 1912 was Methodist Episcopal bishop of Southern Asia, a missionary diocese that included the Philippines, told the Lake Mohonk Conference of Friends to the Indians and Other Dependent Peoples today why he believed the Filipinos were not ready for independence. "I believe greatly in the intellectual capacity of the Filipino," he said, "and greatly admire his ready response to all American attempts that have been made in the past fifteen years to educate and train him for self government. He has made good to a remarkable degree." Nevertheless, he counseled delay in giving them complete autonomy for the following reasons:

"The Filipino has done well under direction. The scholars have been singularly attentive and receptive. But the teacher has been constantly in evidence, and in accounting out comes this should not be overlooked. Much distance has been traveled. Much yet remains before the end appears in sight.

"Particularly is this true in the recognition and in the safeguarding of the rights of the common people. Before the American advent a very great gulf separated the comparatively well born and well to do from the masses. The latter were almost wholly uneducated and submissive to direction. Ignorant of their rights and unable to defend them, they were voiceless and oppressed. Derived from the Malay tribes, the tribal arrangement has ever been in the background of their thinking. In contrast with Spanish aristocratic ideas, even the tribal thinking has degenerated. Submission to the ilustrado and the jefe or political boss has taken the place of tribal devotion to the Penghulu.

"There is a second reason, and that is, the generation that is now in the direction of affairs is Spanish trained. The Americans with their ideas of democracy, their public schools, etc., have been present but fifteen years. The oldest school product is not much over 25 years of age. It is the man of the generation preceding which would immediately come to the direction of affairs. One of the early things that would happen would be the setting aside of the English language and a return to the Spanish and to the ideals of the older civilization.

"What is needed therefore, is first, that the school system be extended sufficiently to take in all the children of the Filipino race. Second, that a time be set sufficiently far ahead, say 30 years hence, by which time the present generation of English trained youth would be followed by a more widely educated generation, and these again be tutored by the children of the race who would be pretty generally literate. A nation wide vote might then be taken to decide whether the people desired complete independence in internal matters and a loose alliance with the United States for the regulation of all foreign affairs."

10 CENT "CASCARETS" STRAIGHTEN YOU UP

No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach, Coated Tongue or Constipated Bowels by Morning.

Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the fascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.—Adv.

METHODIST BISHOP GIVES OPINION OF HUERTA

Dictator is Called Stern but Necessarily So—Likened to Diaz.

Bishop Francis J. McConnell of Denver, Colo., who has charge of the district embracing Wyoming, Colorado and Mexico, was in the City of Mexico at the time Madero was killed. He expects to return to Mexico in February and is viewing with much interest the Mexican political situation.

"Huerta," he said to a Globe-Democrat reporter, "is a dictator, pure and simple—an army man—just as stern in his methods as Diaz ever was, but it remains to be seen whether he has the constructive policies of Diaz. The truth is, I think, Huerta has not had so very much of a chance. Nobody here can estimate what the outcome will be. It all depends on how much hold Huerta has on the army. If Felix Diaz has a stronger hold, or if perhaps some other man, as yet unmentioned, has the greatest influence, that man will triumph.

"Whether citizens of the United States are in real danger in Mexico is uncertain. It all depends on whether they can maintain order in the City of Mexico. Up to the present time these stories of violent treatment accorded to Americans are true only in cases of private feud or where Americans were needlessly exposed, as in the time of the battle, some of them climbed on the roofs.

Mexicans Realize Situation. "When I was in the cities of Mexico, Orizaba and Vera Cruz, I saw no manifestations of anti-American sentiment. The Mexicans realize very clearly the seriousness of the American attitude.

"The thing the American forgets is that the civilization of Mexico is utterly alien from our own point of view. Judged by the Mexican standards, Huerta is not a brutal man. So far as I was able to discover, even the death of Madero was no great shock to the Mexican mind. Things went on just the same as before. They took it about as a thing to be expected. Any leader of a defeated party can look for such a death. I feel, myself, that this murder was a perfectly outrageous thing, but with their standards, it didn't impress them as it does the rest of us."

As to Ambassador Wilson, Bishop McConnell said he knew nothing about Mr. Wilson's relation to his superiors, or his policy, but he remembered that "at great personal inconvenience and great personal sacrifice he looked after all the interests of the Americans while in Mexico. Nobody could have done more than he did for the Americans."

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful—No More Itching Scalp.

Within ten minutes after a application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and prove that your hair is a pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

F. HOPKINSON SMITH 75 YEARS OLD.

New York, Oct. 23.—Francis Hopkinson Smith, one of the most remarkable geniuses this country has ever produced, noted as artist, author and engineer, celebrated the 75th anniversary of his birth today. He was born at Baltimore, Oct. 23, 1838, and when quite young worked as a clerk in an iron works establishment. Later he was educated as mechanical engineer and became engineer and contractor. He built the government sea wall around Governor's Island, New York, another at Tompkinsville, S. I.; the Race Rock light house off New London, and the foundation for the Bartholdi statue of Liberty on Bedloe's Island, New York harbor. Later he became a landscape painter of great merit and a lecturer on art subjects. He traveled extensively and became noted as a scribe of a large number of books, mostly fiction and books of travel. In late years he has traveled a great deal in Europe and devoted himself almost exclusively to literary pursuits.

VALUE OF RHEUMA FROM THE COURT

Judge Barhorst Was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Fort Laramie, Ohio:

Such testimony should be convincing. 50 cents a bottle at all druggists.—Adv.

Arrangements are nearly completed for an open professional golf tournament to be held in Chicago early next month. The tournament is the outcome of a discussion held by several players on a train returning from the western open event at Memphis last week. The contestants will play for a championship, the title of which will be determined later. Golfers within a radius of 100 miles of Chicago are eligible upon the payment of a $5 entrance fee. It is hoped that this meet will be the means of developing players who in future contests, will at least be in condition to give the eastern players a fight for the numerous championships. More fire of a competitive nature would have reversed the poor showing of the western contingent in the Memphis games.

Ad Wolgast is "much put out" because the boxing fans are accusing him of "running out" in that match with Charley White. At his home in Cadillac he is busy being interviewed and telling the village editors how it happened. He says he has two broken ribs laced in rubber stays, and that "his" doctor advises him it would be suicide were he to engage in a boxing match for at least two months. Other people believe it would have been worse than suicide had he kept his engagement and met White in the 16-foot enclosure this evening.

If young Daley, Comiskey's recruit catcher, delivers the same brand of goods next summer that he is now displaying on the present barnstorming tour, Schalk, Schanz and the balance of the 1913 crop of backstop phenoms will be shoved into the background. The Massachusetts kid "shoots 'em dead" when they attempt to steal with a whip that is strong and unerring, and with the war club he is head and shoulders above any player sporting a White Sox uniform for many years.

Tris Speaker has signed with Comiskey and will travel with the White Sox. Ex-Cub Jimmy Sheek and also flirting with the Old Roman and will probably join the tourists. When he does, what a grand suburban combination Callahan will have: Sam Crawford in right, Speaker in center and Sheekard in left.

The White Sox and Giants have cancelled their engagement to play at Port Smith, Ark., because the natives had arranged to have nails drawn from the scaffold in the discarded federal prison and shipped into watch charms to be presented to Comiskey and McGraw. These nails helped support a gallows upon which more than 100 renegades of the southwest in the border days paid the penalty. Anything which suggests death has no charm for Comiskey, and for this reason the game has been called off.

Notwithstanding recent failures, the boxing promoters of Kenosha, Wis., are again up and smiling and on the evening of Nov. 10 will stage a bout between Freddie Welsh, the British lightweight and Eddie Murphy, a handy little mixer from Boston. The match will attract much attention and should draw a packed house. It will be Welsh's first appearance in the middle west, and many of the enthusiasts will want to watch in action the man whom that accommodating English referee granted a draw with Packey McFarland after the latter had trimmed him in all angles of the game when the pair met in London a few years ago.

That grand old handicap mare, Lady Navarre, at one time the property of blonde Charley Ellison, is now being put over the jumps, and in a steeplechase of two miles at Laurel, Md., on Wednesday it finished third to El Bart and Matbie, both old campaigners at timber-topping.

Connie Mack is not worried over the rumor that Baker, his star third sacker, is to quit baseball. He "stood" for a short interview, in which he said: "I am inclined to believe Baker will be with us next season; but if he does quit the game there is nothing for us to do but fill his place."

The recent cold snap killed the Cubs' barnstorming trip. The players returned to Chicago Wednesday and disbanded. Ward Miller was the first to leave, going to his farm near Dixon, Ill., where he says he has an important engagement with a corn husking peg.

The army of armed students at Purdue has not prevented Coach Stagg and his team of maroons from acquiring the Boilermakers' tactics. His assistant coaches, Paige and Sauer, have been drilling both the first and second teams of the Chicago university in all of Purdue's "secret" work since Monday.

Governor and Mrs. Dunne, it is expected, will accompany the Illinois team to Indianapolis on Saturday to watch the Illinois-Indiana contest. Governor Ed is learning fast. Since clinching that job at Springfield he has become a baseball and football fan, whereas when he was a circuit judge in Chicago it was believed he had fancy for nothing outside of a prairie game of "shinney" and an occasional round of a handball court.

Justifies Impatient Father.

Law Notes quotes the following from the opinion of Justice Rudell, of the high court of justice, Ontario, in a habeas corpus case over the custody of a child: "And even if he did not wish his sleep to be broken by a crying infant, it is understood that this is not without precedent in the tenderness and most conscientious of fathers."

First American Cigar Factory.
The first American cigar factory was established in Connecticut in 1810. By 1825 there were numerous small cigar factories in Connecticut, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New York, Maryland and Virginia. The first tax levied on domestic cigars and other tobacco products was laid under the internal revenue law of 1862, which was a war revenue measure.

"It's more important to court the missus when you've married her than before," said an English judge, addressing a man's meeting. Last Witch Burning.

There are countries in which the execution of women as witches is only a thing of yesterday. The last instance of witch burning occurred as recently as 1888 in Peru, and in other parts of South America cases continued to occur until well into the second half of the nineteenth century. England's own last conviction for witchcraft took place at Hertford in 1712, and Scotland condemned a witch ten years later, while Spain and Germany retained a judicial belief in witches and the justice of killing them until 1782 and 1796.

One Cause of Family Trouble.

Good Dr. Josiah Oldfield has discovered that "although marriages are made in heaven, they are too often marred at the breakfast table." But we find that they are still oftener marred at the dinner table. This is because of small platters. Statistics teach us that 9.4 husbands out of every ten carve on platters so ruinous to tablecloths, shirt fronts, collars, wall paper, ceilings and the moral nature of man, woman and child that the only logical consequence is dispute.

HARD COAL BUSINESS IS NOT ALL PROFIT

Government Statistician Gives Some Facts About Mining Industry—Dividing Line Between Profit and Loss is Faint.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—The anthracite coal operator has a hard time making even a slender profit on his investment; the popular idea that he simply sits back and guides a golden stream into his coffers is a delusion, according to Edward W. Parker, statistician of the United States geological survey. And the bituminous operator makes even less money. Mr. Parker said in his address today before the American Mining congress in session here.

Therefore, Mr. Parker said, if anyone is robbing the people on the price of coal, the robber is not the so-called coal baron but somebody else. In fact, he said, the coal mining industry is almost demoralized in the United States and the dividing line between profit and loss is very faint. Citing statistics to uphold his contention, Mr. Parker said in part: "There is a somewhat general impression that the mining of coal, both anthracite and bituminous, is a highly lucrative vocation and that the principal occupation of the so-called coal barons is to look pleasant as the golden stream flows into their coffers. I venture to state, taking the industry as a whole, that there are few lines of industrial endeavor where during the last ten years there have been smaller returns for the capital invested and for the energy, mental and manual, but has been put into it, than in the business of coal mining."

"The United States census report for 1909, the only recent official statistics relative to cost and value available, shows that the value of the Pennsylvania anthracite produced in that year was $148,957,894. The total gross expenses amounted to $139,957,444, from which should be deducted $4,864,844 made up from charges to miners for explosives, oil and blacksmithing, making the net expenses $134,245,600.

"The total production in 1909 amounted to 72,215,273 long tons, so that the average value per ton for the output that year was $2.06; the average cost per ton was $1.86; and the net returns on the operations for the year were $14,712,294, or an average of twenty cents per ton. This as first glance looks like a fair return, but attention must be called to the fact that the census figures of cost make no allowance for interest of capital invested or borrowed, and no offsetting charges for amortization or depreciation.

"According to the returns of the bureau of the census, the entire capital invested in anthracite mining in 1909 was $246,700,000. If on this capitalization an allowance of 4 per cent be made for interest, the net returns for the year amounted in round numbers to $4,844,000. If new breakers and other equipment are charged into operating expenses no allowance need be made for depreciation, but surely the exhaustion of from 75,000,000 to 80,000,000 tons from the reserves every year should have some amortization charged against it and if 5 cents a ton be allowed the margin of $4,800,000 is practically wiped out. At least it may be said from the operators' standpoint there may have been some reason for the recent advances in the price of anthracite, the effect of which I have felt as keenly as any other consumer of anthracite.

"The figures covering the cost and value of bituminous coal show even more striking comparisons. The total value of the bituminous production in the United States in 1909, according to the bureau of census was $401,577,477, and the mining expenses of producing this value, including salaries of officers and $378,159,282. From these figures it appears that 75 per cent of the total cost was spent in wages.

"The total capital invested in the bituminous coal mines of the United States in 1909 was, according to the census bureau, in round numbers, $960,000,000. The difference between the value of the product and the expense of producing it was $23,400,000, or a fraction over 2.5 per cent on the capital. The average value per ton of all the bituminous coal produced in the United States was $1.07, the cost averaged a fraction of a cent over $1, so that the margin of profit to cover interest, depreciation and amortization was a little less than 7 cents a ton."

Incubator Fire at Freeport—The Shoemaker Incubator Works and the Peerless Machine Works were destroyed by fire. The loss was $40,000. It is believed the blaze was started by tramps.

Bar Pictures on Watch Crystals—No longer can the engineers, conductors, brakemen and other employees in the operating department of the Illinois Central railroad carry pictures of their wives, sweethearts and babies on their watch crystals. An order against the practice has been issued by the management. Officials have decided that such pictures are likely to distract the attention of employees from their work and that accidents might result.

Big Deal in Bottom Land—One of the largest deals in real estate known in Adams county has just been recorded. Claib Cook and his wife, Anna L. Cook, of Pekin, transferred by warranty deed to David Mark Cummings of Chicago and Grace C. Berquist of New York city 1577 acres of land in Lima Lake Levee district, about twenty miles north of Quincy, for $78,868. A second deed transfers an additional eighty acres formerly owned by Mrs. Cook to Cummings and Grace C. Berquist for $4900. Although the land is subject to overflows, the stipulated price was $50 per acre.

Public Funeral for Educator—Arrangements have been completed for a public funeral to be given the body of John Trainer November 1. Trainer, who was a well-known Central Illinois educator, died several years ago at Mena, Ark. Subscriptions were secured from county school teachers in all parts of the state to help defray the funeral expenses and purchase a monument.

Good Job For Ex-Gov. Hadley—Former Gov. Herbert S. Hadley of Missouri, who was reported to have said that he would reject an offer of $25,000 a year to act as special counsel for western railroads rather than live in Chicago, has accepted the position and also has been assured that he will not be required to remove to Chicago. Announcement was made that Mr. Hadley and Pierce Butler of St. Paul have been engaged to act as attorneys for the western railroads in the matter of the physical valuation of railroad property now being made under the supervision of the interstate commerce commission.

Deposed Printer's Friends Angry—There is indignation in Bloomington among the friends of John S. Leech, deposed director of printing for the Philippine Islands, over his treatment at the hands of the new governor general. Leech was born in Bloomington and learned the typographical trade in that city. He later went to Chicago and fifteen years ago was given a position as printer in the government printing office in Washington.

Leech was rapidly promoted and was sent to the Philippines by President McKinley to take charge of the newly opened government office in the colonies.

Railroad Officials Transferred—C. S. Millard, superintendent of the Michigan division of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis, well known in Jacksonville, who has been stationed at Wabash, Ind., has been appointed acting superintendent of the Chicago division with headquarters at Indianapolis. T. J. Hayes succeeds Mr. Millard and Edward Zeigler takes the place of Mr. Hayes as superintendent of terminals at Cincinnati.

Alton Machinists Refused Increase—After a two days' conference with President B. A. Worthington, of the Alton, members of the federated committee of Alton shopmen announced that the conference was not satisfactory. After carefully going over the schedules and working rules demanded by the federation, the president refused to either ratify them or make further concessions than those made by the local officials.

One of the schedules demanded by the federation is a six-cent increase in salary for the machinists.

My What a Family—John Gregory, Pana business man, aged 34, and wife, 29, have just become parents of their ninth child, a girl. They have been married eleven years and have never had a physician in their house but once, and then to reduce their boy's fractured leg. Both are strong anti-race suicide advocates and Gregory said that he and his wife are anxious to become parents of twenty children.

MAKING A UNIFORM

It Was For the Czar, and He Wanted It In a Hurry.

A SCARED CRIMEAN TAILOR.

When Pounced Upon by His Majesty's General, Who Cloaked His Mission in Mystery, the Knight of the Shears Thought His Time Had Come.

By special permission of the court authorities an amusing account is published of the circumstances attending the ordering of a military uniform by the czar from a little tailor in the Crimea, Khaim Kurichkess by name, who lived at Simferopol, the headquarters of the Crimean dragoons.

When the imperial family came to Livadia, and some days before the annual fete of the Crimean dragoons, the czar told the colonel that he had in store a gift for him and the regiment—the czarina had consented to become their chief. His majesty added: "I shall be there when you and your officers are presented to the empress and shall wear your uniform. You seem to have an excellent tailor. Your uniform fits beautifully. Who made it?"

The colonel gave the name of Kurichkess, whereupon his majesty asked him to arrange that Kurichkess should make a uniform for himself, adding smilingly: "Tell him to do his best and to turn it out as well as yours."

There is next given a sordid description of the alarm occasioned among the Kurichkess household, consisting of father, mother and nine children, when a handsome motorcar stopped outside their door and a cloaked general officer descended.

The general said in staccato sentences: "You must come with me. Don't be frightened. You'll know later where I'm taking you. I can't leave without you. We've lost much time already. Get dressed quickly."

The tailor obeyed, went with his cap and was absent for four days. Mme. Kurichkess was doubtful whether or she was a wife or a widow.

Eventually the tailor turned up safe and recounted his adventures. The drive with the general had lasted two hours and a half. During the whole journey the general did not address a single word to him. When they reached their destination, Yalta, all he said was, "Khaim Kurichkess, get out and follow me."

M. E. MINISTERS AND STEWARDS HELD CONFERENCE IN CITY

Representatives of Jacksonville District of the Methodist church held their annual meeting in Jacksonville Thursday. The gathering was held in connection with the Founders' day exercises at Illinois Woman's college. The first session was held at 8:30 o'clock at the college and after the devotional service led by Rev. William Gross of Roodhouse, there was round table discussion on "Versatility in Evangelistic Methods," in which the following ministers took part: A. K. Byrns, Beardstown; S. A. McIntosh, Meredosia, and Rev. G. W. Flagg and Rev. J. W. Miller of Jacksonville.

At 10 o'clock all the visitors gathered in Music hall for the Founders' day program and afterward they were entertained at dinner at Centenary church by Dr. and Mrs. F. A. McCarty. The dinner was nicely served by the Ladies' Aid society of Centenary.

At 1:45 o'clock ministers and stewards began a conference in the church auditorium. The devotional was led by Rev. H. F. Cusick.

The program for the afternoon included the following: the addresses and discussion following proving of great interest:

"The Methodist Calendar for October and November,"—Rev. J. P. Edgar of Carrollton.

"Our District,"—Dr. F. A. McCarty.

"The Forward Movement,"—Rev. Dr. J. C. Nate, Bloomington.

"How to Get Anything You Want,"—Dr. J. R. Harker.

The program of the afternoon closed with an address by Dr. Wilbur P. Sheridan of Chicago.

At 2:15 the stewards held their separate session and listened to the report of the estimating committee.

L. P. Berger of Meredosia, O. T. Purl of Carrollton and W. L. Mulligan of Island Grove. This report which was adopted fixed the presiding elders' salary at eight per cent of each pastor's salary, exclusive of house rent. On the same basis the charge for the Epworth fund to provide the salary for bishops was fixed at 2 per cent. Payments to the superannuate preacher fund will be six per cent of the pastor's salary.

Ministers and Stewards Present.

Ministers and district stewards were present as follows: Astoria, Rev. E. A. Hedges and L. L. Hoopes;

Ashland, Rev. W. H. McPherson;

Waverly, Rev. J. S. Smith and Dr. J. Hughes, Franklin, Rev. Peter Kittle, Rev. J. W. Kittle, Samuel Darter, Carrollton, Rev. J. P. Edgar and Virginia, Rev. A. N. Simmons, S. W. Bailey, Manchester, W. S. Clark;

William Gross and Joseph Todd; Waverly circuit, Rev. E. J. Campbell; White Hall, Rev. H. D. Wilson.

Epworth League Cabinet.

Among those present yesterday were some of the members of the district Epworth League cabinet and they improved the occasion to have a meeting for the purpose of discussing matters of importance, it being the first meeting of the conference year. The meeting was a profitable one and the spirit manifested was excellent. All departments of the league are to have enough to keep them busy and the activities of the order are all to have attention in all departments. It is probable that the next meeting will be held in Carrollton next spring and arrangements were set on foot to prepare for it. The following are the officers of the cabinet: President, C. C. Grimmett, of Palmyra; first vice-president, the Rev. A. K. Byrns of Beardstown; second vice-president, Miss Julia Borna of Greenfield; third vice-president, Miss Tillie Warner of Astoria; fourth vice-president, the Rev. C. L. Bell of Palmyra; secretary, F. Grimmett of Palmyra presided and the devotionals were conducted by Paul Morrison. The address of the occasion was by Dr. Sheridan, his theme being "The Epworth League as an Evangelistic Force."

Little Hint.

A little girl came down to dessert at a dinner party and sat next to her mother. This lady was occupied in talking to her neighbors and omitted to give the child anything. After some time the little girl, unable to bear it any longer, with sobs rising in her throat, held up her plate and said: "Does anybody want a clean plate?"

Oh, Certainly!

Of the 2,424 languages and dialects in use in the world, nearly half of them are spoken on the American continent. We certainly do a lot of talking over here.—Cleveland Plaindealer.

PHOSPHATE	10 to 12 per cent.

WHAT IS "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" TANKAGE?

It is a dark colored granular meal, made from meat residues, and it supplies the protein and phosphates necessary for compounding a balanced ration in most economical and palatable form.

It contains phosphates in proper proportion to insure strength of bone and frame work. In the corn belt bone development is a matter of serious consideration.

It is not a substitute for corn, but a small quantity fed in connection with corn or other grains gives a balanced ration.

It is the most economical source of digestible protein known, containing twice as much protein as oil meal and five times as much as middlings, shorts, shipstuf, or alfalfa meal.

TANKAGE is recommended by all leading experiment stations. It is packed in one-hundred-pound burlap sacks, plainly marked "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD." Analysis as above. It is the ideal feed to balance rations.

WHAT "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" TANKAGE DOES.

It develops bone and muscle in young pigs and makes them grow. It matures a hog for market in two and three months quicker than corn alone, thereby saving one-third of the feed bill, one-third of the labor, one-third of the risk, increasing profits one-third.

It grows better proportioned hogs, more meat, and at hence market-topper hogs. "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" Tankage fed hogs ship well with small shrink. While in no wise a medicine, it so fortifies and strengthens the system against attacks of disease germs that "SURE FATTEN HOG FOOD" TANKAGE fed hogs are universally healthy. Manufactured by the WORLD MEETING OF WHITE RIBBONERS.

New York, Oct. 23.—White ribbon flutters in Brooklyn today. Women of every creed and station, wearing the snowy badge of the Woman's Christian Temperance union attached to emblems from every land and from every state in the union and every province of Canada, gathered in the "City of Churches" in readiness for the opening of the anti-triennial convention of the World's W. C. T. U.

The arrival of the foreign delegates started the wheels of the convention activities. A glance at the register maintained at the convention headquarters gave evidence of the fact that the gathering is destined to be the most representative in character in the history of the world wide organization.

Great Britain and her colonies have sent the largest delegation from across seas. The delegation is headed by Lady Aurea Howard, daughter of the world's president, the Countess of Carlisle. The latter found it impossible to come to the convention on account of ill health and in her absence the sessions will be presided over by her daughter. Other prominent delegates from England are Lady Hope, the leader of the movement for the establishment of coffee houses in England; Miss Agnes Slack, an honorary secretary of the world's body, and Miss Amie Strankie-Cameron, who is world's secretary of the Young People's branch.

Miss Ellen M. Stone, the famous missionary who was captured and held for ransom by brigands in Macedonia, will sit in the convention as the representative of Bulgaria. The Australian delegation is headed by Lady Holder, the president of the organization in that part of the world. Scotland and South Africa have sent good sized delegations, and far away China, Japan, India, Argentine and Uruguay will have their representatives; also many other countries.

A Relic of History.

A newly rich woman, who was anxious to make a favorable impression in her neighborhood, decided to show her collection of antiques to the bishop when he called. The time came, and one by one she displayed the whole collection, giving him the history of each piece. "There," she said, pointing impressively to an old yellow teapot, "that teapot was used in the Boston tea party."

NOTES OF TRAVEL IN RUSSIA

(By S. W. Nichols).

The city is modern in most ways, with wide streets, well paved, mostly with wooden blocks, which are the best for horses and from what I can see seem to last wonderfully well. They are put down differently from the way in which they are placed in the streets of London and I should think the plan hardly as good. A kind of foundation is prepared and then two inch plank are laid on it and the blocks on them. The blocks are much shorter than those used in the English capital, but the planks are under them. I am unable to converse with the people and cannot find out any interesting particulars.

The buildings in the city are substantial and I have an idea that building regulations are strict here, as in most European cities and people are not permitted to erect fire-traps, as is sadly the case in our country. The city contains a population estimated at two millions and therefore a good many factories in the suburbs, while there are hosts of business houses in the city, but from the little investigation we have made prices rule very high.

Horses predominate here as in Moscow, only more so and they are to be seen on every hand. The droshkies are nearly always pulled by stallions, fine and prancing, while carriages and even lumbering transfer wagons have the same kind of animals. They have an awkward way of hitching a horse singly. The vehicle is supplied with heavy shafts, no matter how light it may be, and from near the front end of each runs a rod back and is fastened to the spindle of the axle outside the wheel. The front end of the shafts is a heavy half circle of wood extending high above the horse when he is hitched. Then from the ends of the shafts are rods of iron a few inches long extending horizontally toward the horse and the other ends of these are fastened to the harness and collar so that when a man wants to hitch his horse he throws on the harness except the harness and collar, which are fastened to the rig, when he leads the animal under the bow which is above the shafts, adjusts the collar and harness, which are all together and the rig is ready for business. There is little holding back to do, as the ground is level and invariably the breeching of the harness is much less than an inch in width.

Droshkies are hired quite reasonably, though they have no set list of prices as taxicabs have in Berlin, Paris and many other European cities. The prevailing price is 25 cents for a long trip or 40 cents an hour and the rig will hold three or a pinch, though two are enough to fill the seat comfortably. The men drive moderately and here as in Moscow I have seen little of the proverbial Russian cruelty to animals.

This city is so far north that at this time of the year we have to retire and arise by the clock rather than by the sun or absence of that luminary. I can see to read quite well till nine and it is hardly dark at ten and the air is bracing and invigorating. The seasons are short though and farming has to be done in a hurry, for the winters are long. There is fine sleighing here a good part of the year and people who have horses and leisure may enjoy that pastime all right.

In front of our hotel is the far famed St. Isaac's Cathedral and it is a wonderful pile, though it is unfortunate that the foundations are not more secure. Every precaution was taken in its construction, piles were driven into the ground and an immense quantity of material was used in the endeavor to make the foundations what they should be, but still it is said the vast building is sinking and while it is hardly perceptible it is going down and when it begins to do so on one side more than another, unsightly cracks will appear in the walls and sometime possibly the magnificent pile will have to come down.

We paid it a visit this morning and while I shall at all attempt a detailed description I will mention a few of the leading points that impressed me. On the exterior are 112 huge pillars of Pinakel granite and I couldn't help thinking of the enormous amount of work it must have taken to prepare them in such perfect shape when they are so large. There are several pairs of enormous bronze doors supplied with artistic designs in bas relief and while they weigh tons each they are so nicely hung I could swing them easily. In different parts of the interior are great icons, some of them worth hundreds of thousands, with the rich jewels and gold and silver adornments. In one corner under a glass case is something that looks like a sarcophagus or a tomb of an illustrious person, but it is not, but is an object used on Easter day and some other times to represent the Master in the tomb and on top of it, seen from a steep ladder, a superb mosaic representation of the Redeemer.

There are tall pillars of what seems to be that precious material, malachite, but in reality they are only covered with it in pieces ingeniously joined so that it looks as if the whole of the columns were of the beautiful green stone. Then there is much elegant lapidazuli, which is also a marvel, while porphyry is also plentiful. In various places about the vast edifice are choice paintings by noted masters, while the most striking of all such work is the wonderful mosaic portraits. Ranged along side are full figure, heroic size portraits of the Madonna and child, the Savior, St. Isaac, St. Nicholas and others. There are several chapels ranged along one side and the iconostases in front of them are magnificent. The display of gold and jewels is simply bewildering. We came to one great and beautiful door at the side of the chapel and while Mrs. Ewert and Henrietta were not permitted to go in, we men folks had a gorgeous decorated altar, the seat of the archbishop in the rear and the back window supplied in stained glass with a full figure, heroic size picture of the Savior. I gazed at it for a long time, for it certainly was a magnificent work of art.

Here too in a glass case was a model of the cathedral. It was perhaps three feet square and seemed to be of gold and must have been overlaid with that precious metal, for it was beautiful. At another altar a mass was being said and though there were few auditors it seemed to make no difference, for the priests went right along and an invisible choir rendered some fine music which we much enjoyed. One priest wore a golden cloth robe which seemed to me would buy a block of buildings, and he had a voice which reminded us of the sonorous tones of Archdeacon Romanoff at Moscow. I think I never saw more hair on a man than he wore. It was long and was combed back according to the custom of the clergy, while his beard and moustache were enormous and covered his face largely and reached away down his breast. He was venerable and devout and made a deep impression on his audience.

An attendant came out through one of the side doors of the altar and gave a little girl something that looked like a bulb and she seemed glad to get them and hurried away. I supposed they had been used in the ceremonies and the priest thought he would put them where they would do the most good.

Another Palace. In the afternoon our guide took us to what he was pleased to call Tsarskoi Sello or the summer palace, which was built by the well known Queen Catharine the Great about 150 years ago. It is beautifully located in a forest or large park in which the trees are many of the original forest and some have been planted and shade lovely avenues for miles through the ample grounds, which are some twenty miles from the city. The palace is hardly as large as the one in Moscow, having less rooms, but some of them are of surpassing loveliness. The doors are peculiarly inlaid and contain a greater variety of figures than I ever saw before, while some of the apartments are of wonderful beauty. Among other remarkable treasures in the palace are many costly and priceless vases of great size. One room has choice silk tapestry on its walls, while the walls of several others are as richly adorned. Choice paintings by many of the great masters are to be found in various rooms, while one was especially given up to that sort of treasure.

Our guide took us into one room which he said was the choicest in the world, as it was the amber room and the walls were covered with that costly material, while rich figures of it were to be seen in different parts of the place and in a case were a number of articles especially beautiful and made of that same material. It was indeed unique and wonderful. The vast banquet hall was a rich room and the whole place was peculiar in that the ceilings of the principal rooms were adorned with choice oil paintings by the best masters, some of whom were brought from other countries. One peculiar feature of the banquet hall was its echoes. A man standing in a certain spot and clapping his hands made a sound that was echoed in a peculiar manner like the ticking of a clock in some quarters and resounded all over the place and I wondered if in that grand apartment there had been any revels lasting till the hours of morning when sounds of mirth and even ribald jests rang out. I hope not at any rate.

The chapel where the royalty used to attend church and where the present family goes when in this palace is finished in blue and gold and is a grand place and if gold and glitter count for anything in worship the efforts in this apartment ought to ascend very high. There are especial seats for singers and for the royal hearers. One apartment is called the gold room and in that is an unusual amount of special metal and is lavishly scattered all over the great building. The palace is rather long and narrow and a corridor extends all along one side and we could look back and see what a long distance we had come and how great was the structure. Placed along the exterior of the walls are bronze figures artistically devised and arranged and thus the building looks more like a palace from without than do some others we have seen, while the grounds are worthy of a royal residence. They contain several hundred acres and are beautifully laid out. Scattered about the grounds are smaller buildings of costly material and workmanship for the use of the royal occupants that they might enjoy a tea, a musical entertainment or something of the sort. Then there is a large lake on which the kingly people have yachts and during their absence visitors may hire row boats and also the park is free to any one when the royal family is not using the park, which is the greater part of the year.

As we were walking through the grounds we met two ladies and their waiting maid taking a walk and the maid was leading a small bull dog of doubtless great value and certainly the most ugly brute one ever saw. His nose was turned right up and he presented a comical and grotesque appearance. I called attention to him and they stopped and one of the ladies made a motion toward her nose as if to tease the dog, whereupon he sprang at her and was restrained by the chain held in the hands of the maid. This was done once or twice and then Mr. Ewert and Henrietta tried it and then Mr. Ewert sprang at Mr. Ewert as if to tear him to pieces. The maid let go of the chain and for an instant I feared we would have a wounded man in our company, but the dog only looked up at him when he reached him and was wholly pacified.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fondle Is Woman's Greatest Happiness.

One of the most important matters about which women concern themselves is their future status as a grandmother. And she is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. This is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence, always all fear, hushes all pain, is a most grateful encouragement to the young, expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, free in body and thus destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should. The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles firm, pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and, in place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread, it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation. There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women, hence Mother's Friend is really one of the greatest blessings that can be devised. This splendid and certain remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle, and is sure to prove of inestimable value, not only to the mother, but upon the health and future of the child. Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 132 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers. There is a wealth of instruction and comfort to be derived in reading this little book. It is plainly written, just what every woman wants to know, and will be a splendid little textbook for guidance, not only for yourself, but will make you helpful to others. And, in the meantime, do not fail to get a bottle of Mother's Friend at the drug store, and thus fortify yourself against any and all pain and discomfort.

The meeting will be held in the circuit court room, on Wednesday, October 29th. To accommodate those that have to go home by early trains, the time of the meeting is set for 12 o'clock noon.

WHY 7,000 DRUGGISTS

Guarantee and Recommend Vinol. If any one should know the value of a medicine it is the retail druggist who sells it.

Therefore, when over seven thousand of the best retail druggists in the country recommend Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, as the greatest tonic, restorative and strength creator they have ever sold, it must indicate the value of Vinol.

We could publish columns of such testimony as the following:

J. C. Brady, druggist of Fall River, Mass., says: "In cases where cod liver oil, emulsions and other tonics fail, Vinol will heal, strengthen and cure."

C. A. Potterfield, druggist of Charleston, W. Va., says: "It is a pleasure to sell Vinol, as it gives such universal satisfaction."

Hunter & McGhee, druggists of Jackson, Miss., say: "We have great confidence in the strength creating and curative value of Vinol."

We ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person or any person suffering from chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, to try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding if it does not do all we claim their money will be refunded.

—L. P. Alcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

P. S.—For itching, burning skin, try Saxo Salve. We guarantee it.

GENERAL BOOTH SAILS FOR AMERICA.

London, Oct. 23.—Hundreds of members of the Salvation Army, including all of the high officers of the organization in London and vicinity, joined today in a great farewell demonstration in honor of General Bramwell Booth, the eldest son and successor of the late General William Booth. The occasion of the demonstration was the departure of General Booth from Southampton to begin his first tour of America since he became head of the world organization. General Booth will land at Toronto on November 1 and after a week's visit in that city he will proceed to Winnipeg. Later he will inspect the work of the Salvation Army and deliver public addresses in many of the leading cities of the United States.

Sample of Ingalls' Satire.
Many years ago, when Senator Ingalls was in the senate, oleomargarine was a bone of contention. The debate led Ingalls to utter one of those epigrammatic sentences which made him famous. "I have never, to my knowledge, tasted oleomargarine," said Ingalls, "but I have stood in the presence of genuine butter with awe for its strength and reverence for its antiquity."

Geese His Favorite.
Gerrald, the five-year-old son of a hotel proprietor, was permitted to go with his nurse to a large farm in the country, the home of the nurse's parents. After returning home his father said: "Now, Gerrald, tell us who of all the folks on the farm you liked best?" "The geese," promptly answered the boy, "because they eat a little and talk a little and bow to you."

STOCK MARKET MAKES GOOD SHOWING

AFTER SEVERE BREAK IN STOCKS A BETTER DEMAND DEVELOPS.

Bear Operators Encounter Effective Opposition and Slow Recovery Ultimately Restores Prices—List Moves Off From Best Figures in the Late Dealings—Feeling of Trading Element as a Whole Remains Bearish.

(By Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 23.—In spite of a severe break in stocks at the outset today the market made a fairly good showing. After declines of 1 to 2 points had occurred among all the leading speculative shares, with an outpouring of offerings which for a time threatened to upset the market lady, a better demand developed.
Trading became quieter as the bear operators encountered effective opposition and then ensued a slow recovery which ultimately restored prices close to yesterday's final range.
The list moved off from the best figures in the late dealings but the close was well above the low points for the day.

Despite these improving tendencies, the feeling of the trading element as a whole remained distinctly bearish.

Much was made of discouraging reports from the steel trade, the favorite topic of the bears. Steel was unloaded in a rapid succession of large blocks during the early trading and its recession of nearly two points did much to force down the list as a whole.

The intimation of Chairman of the New Haven at the annual meeting, that the dividend rate probably would be cut to four per cent caused a slump of three points in that stock to 62, a new low record. Subsequently it made a partial recovery.

OBSERVE FOUNDERS DAY AT WOMANS COLLEGE

APPROPRIATE EXERCISES WERE HELD THURSDAY MORNING
BEFORE LARGE AUDIENCE.

President Harker Paid Tribute to Those Who Have Contributed to Uplifting of Institution—Address Made by Dr. Wilbur Sheridan of Chicago.

A happy feature of the year in the administration of the Illinois Woman's College is the observance of Founders' day. It is simply impossible at the present time to understand and appreciate the trials, self-sacrifice and heroic devotion of the men and women of the early days. They who left as a heritage to the present generation the grand institutions now enjoyed truly built better than they knew and left lasting monuments to their grand labors of love for future generations and it is eminently proper that their memory should be perpetuated and honor paid them.

The picture of the college as it appeared in 1856 was on the cover of the program yesterday and the predated elaborate cluster of buildings shows what has been accomplished since that time. The day was eminently propitious and the exercises a success throughout. Music hall was well filled with an interested audience and the spirit of the occasion was truly fine. The opening exercises were conducted by Dr. Harker and consisted of the Doxology, Creed, Gloria, hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy," memory selections of scripture. Responsive reading of the 103rd psalm, prayer by Dr. Horace Reed and violin solo "The Vision of Jeanne d'Arc," Gounod, by Director Max Swarthout.

The Debt To Others.
Dr. Harker then made a few appropriate remarks of which a portion is given:

"We are too likely to forget the obligation we owe to the fathers who did so much for us of the present generation; their trials, sacrifices and heroic labors in founding such institutions as this and in similar work and in order to avoid that error founders' day has become an established feature of the year in this institution. On the program are noted the successive presidents of the several boards or trustees: Rev. Peter Cartwright, Rev. Peter Akers, Matthew Stacy, William Thomas A. C. Wadsworth, Dr. Thomas J. Pifer.

The presidents of the institution have been Dr. Jaques, Dr. Adams, Dr. DeMotte, Dr. Short, Dr. Harker. Notable among the long time friends and workers for the institution are the great Dr. Cartwright, pioneer and wonderful administrator; Dr. Akers, historian, theologian and man way ahead of his time; Matthew Stacy, serving 32 years in various capacities on the board; William Thomas, noble and generous giver, member of the first board serving 43 years; Wm. Brown, one of the first trustees and serving 43 years on the board; John Mathers, a trustee from 1849 until his death, 31 years; Dr. Hiram Buck, serving 28 years; Dr. Prentice, serving 31 years; A. C. Wadsworth, serving on the board 43 years and president 22 years. These and many more who might be mentioned come in for a share of praise and grateful remembrance.

Portraits of College Friends.
Conspicuous on the platform were a portrait of Dr. Akers and one of John Mathers. The latter was especially good and looked wonderfully natural. That of Dr. Akers represented the gentleman as he was in middle of life and not quite as natural to those who knew him in his later years. Dr. Harker said he was making an especial effort to get portraits of the early friends of the college and was having good success. He spoke eulogistically of Dr. Akers, laborer for religion and education in Illinois for 56 years. Founder of the first manual training school in the state, conducted at Ebenezer for several years, long ago.

John Mathers came to this land from Ireland when fourteen years of age, worked hard and intelligently and at a critical time gave the college $3,000, when it meant a tremendous sacrifice and underwrote several other subscriptions and paid several without the knowledge of any one but the beneficiary.

Could these friends of the college be present today, and who will say they are not? and who will say thank God for what He has done and for what has been accomplished.

The college has had three distinct charters, the first January 16, 1847 and was styled the Illinois Conference Female Academy. There were nine trustees with permission to increase the number to twelve.

The second was granted by special act of the legislature and approved January 29, 1851 and the name was changed to the Illinois Conference Female College with permission to increase the number of trustees to 32.

The third was an act of the legislature approved June 13, 1853 and the name was changed to the Illinois Female College and it was vested with suitable powers. Without any change in the charter the name has been changed to the Illinois Woman's College.

President Harker then introduced Rev. Wilbur F. Sheridan D. D., general secretary of the Epworth League of the Methodist Episcopal church. Of his excellent address a short outline is given.

Dr. Sheridan's Address.
I sincerely congratulate the students and the friends of this institution on the fine equipment here possessed, on the endowment of half a million or which is to be that sum; and one the grand success Dr. Harker has attained during his twenty years as president of the college (applause). We are here today to honor the memory of the early friends and founders of this grand institution and we should emulate their example and do even better than they for we have finer facilities.

Long before the war Dr. Akers was preaching on the awful sin of slavery. He was in the open air and said he felt that in that congregation were some who would have a great part in doing away with that awful sin.

A tall young man remarked on leaving the place that he was deeply impressed by the discourse and felt as if the preacher meant him. That young man was Abraham Lincoln.

It affords me great pleasure to greet you today as Epworth Leaguers for I feel there is much in your grand organization to lead you to nobler ideals and higher aims in life. It has been said that this is an age of cynicism; that the young men of the colleges and universities regard the professors of the institutions and the ministers of the gospel as old maids and not at all calculated to advance those with whom they come in contact. If we are to succeed in life we must have ideals and work toward them. There is a constant struggle going on in the world. When the child holds to its ear the shell it imagines it hears the roar of the ocean waves but in reality it is the currents of air struggling against each other. In the forest two saplings start side by side but by and by one rises above the other, sends out longer branches and deeper roots and dwarfs the other. The stronger animals live on the weaker and so it is all through life. In congress you will see the forces arrayed against each other and both striving for the mastery; in Wall street you will see on the floor of the exchange the greatest struggle for supremacy in the financial world and so it is all over the world.

In the lands of the old world there are millions who do not know what it is to have three meals a day and hosts of them go hungry at night.

In our land one tenth of the people of the great cities are fed by charity in the winter. In the United States there are five million women who should by home makers earning wages and half a million children. This state of things has helped create the opinion regarding cynicism in the country. Far too often prevails the sentiment:

"Of all my father's family
I love myself the best;
If the Lord will only care for me
The Devil may take the rest."

There is too much cynicism in the colleges and elsewhere and we should try our best to change the order of things in that respect. We can all do much and great powers rest with the women of the land.

In the family of a well to do son of Hibernian extraction there were many sharp controversies and a neighbor asked the cause and the Irish man said he and his wife were quarreling over the bed sheets. He thought cotton good enough but she was bent on having linen.

After a while the quarreling ceased and being asked how it happened the Fatherland said they had compromised the matter, and being congratulated said in reply to the question as to how it came about said they had compromised on linen. And so, young ladies, you will generally get such compromises if you are wise and use your powers as you may.

When you leave this institution you will enter upon a struggle and I urge you let it be for the betterment of humanity. Let love for humanity be your impulse. Various virtues should govern your lives. Like the river Rhone flowing from lake Geneva in a beautiful, clear stream fed by the eternal snows and ice of the Alps still maintains its clear waters when mingled with those of a muddy stream so let your lives be pure and sweet even when mingled with the mass of humanity about you.

When the trainers of carrier pigeons want a bird to fly a thousand miles in the shortest time they take one away from her young and set her at liberty and quickly she seeks the dearest object on earth to her. We never can know the trials, self-sacrifice and devotion of the early circuit riders of this land. They toiled, went without almost the necessities of life that they might leave for us today the grand enterprises which have done so much for humanity. It is sacrifice for the good of others that gives all the purest pleasure in life.

A noble young man sacrificed his life to have persons at the awful Iroquois theatre fire while a banker fought his way out over the bodies. The one died a noble death and the other wished himself back where he might die with the rest he was so ashamed. Christ is our example of perfect devotion to others; the golden Example of the ages; let us imitate Him.

The college song and a scriptural quotation closed the morning services.

Puritans Fond of Lace.

In Puritan times, though the bobbins were carved with texts warning the workers against the pomps and errors of this wicked world, lace was still worn to a great extent, the family of Oliver Cromwell in particular having a decided penchant for the more costly varieties, and after his death his body was clothed in a garment more richly trimmed with lace and ermine than that of any king before him.

How Do the Classics Help Us?

The answer lies in one little word, art. The classics, more than any modern literature, teach us art, and art is the conscious purpose of man to make this world more beautiful. Philip Sidney says that the object of poetry is to make this too-much loved world more lovely. I should extend his definition a little further and say: that the object of art is to make this world more lovely, more lovable, and more loved.—Henry D. Sedgwick, in the Atlantic.

Tuberculosis in Europe.

From one tenth to one fourth of the total mortality of Europe is caused by tuberculosis. The approximate number of deaths in each million of the population from tuberculosis in certain countries is given as follows: Russia, 4,000; Austria-Hungary, 3,500; France, 3,000; Germany, 2,200; Holland, 1,900; Italy, 1,800; Scotland, 1,700; England, 1,400.

Novelist Misquoted Scripture.

Novelists do not seem to be very strong in their knowledge of the scriptures somehow, and Sir Walter Scott in "The Heart of Midlothian" attempts to point a moral with the words: "Our simple and unpretending heroine had the merit of those peacemakers to whom it is promised as a benediction that they shall inherit the earth." The fact is that the peacemakers did not receive any such promise, but it is said that "the meek shall inherit the earth."

Love Is Similar to Sunlight.

How the sunlight seems to watch for a chance to get through the smallest opening in the clouds! Love, which forgives because it is love, and which waits for every opportunity to manifest kindness, is not going to wait to be asked to forgive. Ignore the wrongs you receive and think over the good that has been or yet may be, and the evil will dwindle into nothingness.—Robertson.

Fear Trouble After Spilling salt.

In many of the rural districts of Russia people when they spill salt not only toss a pinch over the left shoulder, but also crawl under the table and come out the other side, in order to avert ill-luck; while in New England, to break the evil spell of spilling salt, every particle is supposed to be collected and thrown on the stove to be consumed.

Strenuous Life in St. Bernard.

The hard climate and the perilous task undertaken by the monks of the famous St. Bernard hospice usually ruin the health of these originally robust men in the brief spell of 15 years, when they return to Martigny to conclude their days. Even the dogs are at intervals sent to Martigny for a rest.

The extra leaves of an extension table invented by a Pennsylvanian are carried beneath the top when not in use and raised into place and fastened there by turning a pair of thumb-screws.

Arnold a Lenient Examiner.

When Matthew Arnold was a school examiner a fellow inspector of a class of girl pupil-teachers asked Arnold to examine for him. Arnold gave each of the young women the "excellent" mark. "Be sure," said the other inspector, "sure!" "Are not all as good as they can be; some must be better than others." "Perhaps that is so," replied Arnold; "but then, you see, they are all such very nice girls."

And music, whatever people say, is not a universal language; the bow of words is necessary to send the arrow of sound into the hearts of men.—Romain Rolland.

GRAND JURY INDICTS THAW AND FOUR OTHERS WITH CONSPIRACY

Indictment Will Be Used as Weapon By Jerome in His Efforts to Extradite Thaw.

New York, Oct. 23.—A blanket indictment charging Harry K. Thaw and four others with conspiracy in connection with his escape from the Matteawan State Hospital, criminal insane, in August, was returned by the grand jury here today. It will be used as a weapon by William Travers Jerome in his efforts to extradite Thaw from New Hampshire. Moses Greesman, counsel for Thaw was in the building when the indictment was returned. He denounced it as subterfuge.

"A person who has been committed to an asylum as insane cannot be adjudged guilty of conspiracy," he said. "I do not believe this indictment will stand and I seriously doubt if it will in anyway effect the status of the case in New Hampshire."

"I have all along contended that it is not the intention to try on any indictment for the obvious reason that no conviction could be had."

Will Grant Postponement.

Concord, N. H., Oct. 23.—On learning tonight that Thaw's counsel would request a postponement in view of the indictment returned against Thaw by the New York county grand jury, Governor Felker said the hearing had been set for October 27th.

Those of Thaw's counsel who were here tonight said their plan of action could not be decided until they had seen the new documents.

They expressed the opinion however that their briefs would lay emphasis upon the impossibility of indicting a sane person on a charge of conspiracy.

RUSSIANS DISCOVER STEAMER CENTENNIAL LOST SIX YEARS AGO

Ship Reported to Be Fast In Ice In Okhotsk Sea With No Sign of Human Life on Board.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 23.—The Steamer Centennial, which left Muroran, Japan, six years ago for San Francisco with a cargo of sulphur and was never heard from, is reported to be fast in the ice off Saghalin Island, Okhotsk Sea, Siberia. A Russian expedition bound through the Okhotsk Sea discovered the missing vessel, with life boats gone, the name partly obliterated and her iron work corroded. There was no sign of a human being on the ship.

It is supposed the Centennial was driven from her course by storm and was caught in the ice.

Had Crew of 38 Men.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 23.—The Centennial sailed from this port during the Russo-Japan war with a cargo of salt and beef. She was seized by the Japanese as a blockade runner but later was allowed to proceed to her destination and discharge. She then loaded sulphur for San Francisco. She was last reported from Hakodate February 24th, 1906. The Centennial was in command of Captain B. Gillery and had a crew of 38 men. At the time she was built, in 1859 she was one of the largest iron vessels afloat.

ST. LOUIS FLORIST SHOPS ARE STRIPPED OF FLOWERS

Flower Dealers Are Swamped With Orders For Floral Tributes For Busch Funeral Tomorrow.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 23.—The florist shops here were stripped and wholesale flower dealers within a radius of three hundred miles were taxed to capacity with orders tonight for floral tributes for Adolphus Busch, the millionaire brewer, who died in Germany several weeks ago and will be buried here Saturday.

In most of the large flower establishments here employees worked all night preparing designs which had been ordered by friends of the deceased from all parts of the world.

The announcement of the funeral plans forbids the use of cameras on the Busch grounds and asks the public to refrain from taking pictures of the funeral processions.

Special traffic rules have been issued to be in effect during the funeral procession and a large police escort has been provided.

Snake Put Town in Darkness.

A 20-inch green snake put out all the electric lights in the town of Mullins, S. C. In the morning linemen found it tangled in some wires on a pole. It had crawled to the top of the pole and coming in contact with the wires forced a short circuit, put out the lights and incidentally died.

Many Write of Joan.

Eighteen years ago a catalogue of works then existing was published under the title of "Bibliography of Works Relating to Joan of Arc." It contained 667 works of general biography, 849 that dealt with particular portions of the maid's life, 160 dramas and twenty-one operas and the compiler stated that he could have included another 1,000 volumes.

STEEL BUSINESS SLACKNESS TO CONTINUE THROUGH WINTER

Business Is Reported to Have Suffered a Slight Recession—No Material Business Expected by Spring

Chicago, Oct. 23.—The steel business has suffered a slight recession and the slackness may be expected to continue throughout the winter. No material business, however, may be expected by spring. This was the effect of discussion at the regular monthly meeting today at Gary, Ind., of the presidents of the subsidiary companies of the United States Steel corporation. The steel chiefs are in this city to attend the meeting of the American Iron and Steel Institute tomorrow.

E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of the steel corporation, gave the account of the proceedings at the president's meeting.

Mr. Gary was emphatic that no reduction of the present output of steel is contemplated by the corporation as he asserted that no wholesale layoff of steel workers is being considered. On the contrary he declared that all the plants of the corporation were working at full force and expected to so continue.

COURT QUASHES WRIT.

Salem, Ore., Oct. 23.—The Oregon supreme court quashed today the mandamus writ of E. C. Von Klein of Chicago, held in jail in Portland on charges of larceny and bigamy. Von Klein had sought to compel the circuit court to show cause why he should not be released.

WILL CONSULT ATTORNEY GENERAL.

Mayor Davis expects to go to Springfield today to consult Attorney General Lucey as to the proper course for the board of education to pursue with reference to the contract for the proposed eighth grade building. As noted yesterday Mr. Wolke notified the board that he had found a mistake of $2700 in his bid. The board does not see how the bid can be corrected and recognizes the disadvantages of throwing out all the bids and again advertising. Mr. Wolke filed a certified check with his bid for five per cent of the bid and the board could therefore insist that he take the contract or forfeit the check.

First Use of Tobacco.

The cigar has a long history. Tobacco may have been used in cigar form before it was burned in pipes, snuffed as snuff or taken as a "quid," but on this point there is no proof. Two of the sailors under Columbus on the first voyage reported that they had seen natives of the new-found world with firebrands in their mouths and with smoke issuing from their lips.

Snake Put Town in Darkness.

A 20-inch green snake put out all the electric lights in the town of Mullins, S. C. In the morning linemen found it tangled in some wires on a pole. It had crawled to the top of the pole and coming in contact with the wires forced a short circuit, put out the lights and incidentally died.

Wisdom of Childhood.

The following composition on men is credited to a little girl: "Men are what women marry. They drink and smoke and swear, but don't go to church. Perhaps if they wore bonnets they would. They are more logical than women and also more zoological. Both men and women sprung from monkeys, but the women sprung further than the men."

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Mrs. George L. Merrill entertained a limited company of friends Thursday afternoon at a sewing with Mrs. H. C. Woltman and Miss Bess Weller of Montour Falls, N. Y., as honor guests. The party was characterized by Mrs. Merrill's usual generous hospitality.

One hundred eighty-five students of the high school and Brown's, Illinois and Illinois Woman's colleges assembled in the church parlors Thursday evening to enjoy the Central Christian Endeavor society annual student social. Fortune telling, music and a "clothes-pin race" entertained the young people until a late hour, when the refreshment committee served coffee and doughnuts. The chairman of the committees were Miss Lulu Roberts, entertainment; Miss Grace McCarty, refreshment; Miss Ruth Vail, decoration; Ellis Spray, advertisement; Earl Johnston, executive. The fortune tellers were Miss Adelaide McCarty and Louis Osborne. A feature of the entertainment was the decorations—autumn leaves, stalks of corn, cypress vine and small jack o' lanterns—suggestive of the time of year and of Halloween.

GENEROUS TREATMENT

The frequent mention of the name of Judge Thomas during the exercises at the Woman's College yesterday brought vividly to mind an experience with the good man almost half a century ago. The writer had come to Jacksonville to work his way through college and was of course glad to get anything he could find to do. The judge employed him to do some writing in the famous basement office of the well known college avenue residence and when the work was done the attorney asked for his bill.

"About six dollars" was the reply. "You have not asked enough; I think eight dollars would be about right," and the quill pen squeaked and crawled over a check for the sum.

The two dollars was but little to the giver but the receiver will never forget the act of kindness for he regards an ingrate as about the most despicable of all beings.

I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by anyone but myself.

Hugh W. Shepherd.

FINE FRUIT.

D. J. McCarty residing at 818 West Morton avenue, has some remarkable tropical fruit, or perhaps it would be more nearly correct to say Mrs. McCarty has the fruit. First is a lemon tree with five lemons on it and Mr. McCarty says they are larger and finer than the ones offered for sale in the city.

Then she has a fig tree which some months since bore 76 perfect figs which were eaten and much enjoyed by the family. The tree has tried it again but this time has only three figs on it and one would hardly suppose that more could be expected of it. Mrs. McCarty keeps the trees in her cellar during the cold weather.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE Y. M. C. A. BEGINS SUCCESSFUL YEAR

Will Have Series of Vocational Talks by Representative Men—Plan Club Room—Officers Elected.

The newly elected officers and cabinet of the Illinois college Y. M. C. A. are at work on several plans which will be innovations in the management and activities of the association. The schedule of meetings for the entire year is in course of preparation, doing away with the old schedule subjects and leaders from meeting to meeting. The schedule will include a number of talks on the choosing of a vocation by representative tradesmen, merchants and professional men. A long felt want will be filled by the establishment of a club room under the management of the association which will serve as a social gathering place for the young men of the college and academy. For this purpose President Rammelkamp has offered one of the first floors of South Crampton hall. Such a room will be appreciated by all the men of the institution, as there has been no suitable place for the boys to gather socially without imposing on some one of the residents of the dormitory.

The new officers are:
President—Ellis Spray.
Vice president—Ray Bracewell.
Secretary—treasurer—Stewart Russell.

The committee heads of the various phases of association activity making up the cabinet heads are:

Membership, Clarence Kimmel; social, Edward Bullard; Bible study, Walter Land; meetings, Clay Apple; church relations, Arthur Gustafson; extension, Verne Mitchell; missions, Ray Berry, and rooms, Ray Bracewell.
